

Brief Bio on Coach Tom Houck: Tom wears many hats! He has a Masters of Theology from Wesley Theological Seminary and Certificate of Theological Studies from John Leland Center for Theological Studies and is the author of the devotional book Between the Tackles. A long-time coach of middle and high school wrestlers, Tom has coached at TOP and Eastern Loudoun Wrestling Club, and NVHAA (2017 and 2018). In addition, he has led camps and clinics and developed an online training curriculum called MyCoach. Tom is currently the President and Founder of Top of the Podium (TOP) Wrestling Center (2014-present) in Sterling, In 2019, he was named the Virginia Wrestling Association's "Man of the Year". Although he comes with a strong Wrestling background, his Christian faith and passion to minister to young men through the sport of Wrestling are what make him unique!